

Why can't a state have more stringent laws than the federal government when it comes to consumer matters? We in Wisconsin like the no call situation the way our legislators handled it. Please, keep the telephone sales people away from us. In fact, why don't you at the federal level adopt the Wisconsin laws.